

12/5/2017

Turnitin

Assignments

Students

Grade Book

Libraries

Calendar

Discussion

mrs-sullivan.com

Preferences

Libraries

Assignments QuickMark Manager Rubric/Form Manager PeerMark Questions

CRITERIA		SCALES
		Scale 1	10.00	Scale 2	7.00	Scale 3	5.00	Scale 4	0.00
Criterion 1	20%	Structure	ALL elements of a typical ballad. A proficient ballad will include and/or demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Quatrains</li> <li>• Consistent rhyme scheme</li> <li>• Rhythm</li> <li>• Refrain</li> </ul>	elements included in a typical ballad.		elements that make a ballad.
Criterion 2	20%	Plot	Ballad recounts a single focus: a domestic event of common people, deals with tragedy or the supernatural, or contains themes of physical courage or love	Ballad attempts MOST (at least 5) elements included in a typical ballad.		Ballad shows little evidence of the elements that make a ballad.
Criterion 3	20%	Narration	Ballad consistently uses third-person, detached narration that pays little attention to characterization.	Ballad attempts to focus on domestic events of common people, incorporates few supernatural or tragic, elements, or merely touches on physical courage or love		Ballad plot involves happy events, extraordinary occurrences, or powerful people.
Criterion 4	20%	Dialogue	Ballad contains two or more persons speaking to each other	Ballad consistently uses third-person, detached narration that pays little attention to characterization.		Ballad uses inconsistent narration, an emotionally involved narrator, or fully characterizes people.
Criterion 5	20%		Ballad uses plain, simple language with stock adjectives and descriptions	Ballad mixes plain and ornate language.		Ballad uses descriptive, ornate language or confusing word choice.
TOTAL	100%		RUBRIC SCORING	This rubric cannot be edited					